

Aging and Disability Resource Center of Barron and Rusk Counties - Rusk

Visit Website

Services at the Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Barron and Rusk Counties include Disability Benefit Specialists and Elder Benefit Specialists. Disability Benefit Specialists are professionals who serve people ages 17 1/2 - 59 who have a disability. They help with questions related to employment, Social Security, Medicare, health insurance, and other public and private benefits for adults with disabilities. Elder Benefit Specialists are professionals who help people ages 60+ navigate both private and public benefits, including Medicaid, Social Security, Medicare, prescription plans and more. From October 15th to December 7th, they have a focus on Medicare Open Enrollment.
