Visit Website

The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Door County provides Elder and Disability Benefit Specialists. The Benefit Specialists are trained to assist adults living with a disability and older adults (60+) who want to know more about private or public benefits, who are seeking assistance in organizing the paperwork required to apply for benefits, who are having a problem in securing a public or private benefit, or who have been denied a benefit that they think they are entitled to receive. Benefit Specialists can:

- Present accurate information on public and private benefits and programs;
- Assist in filling out applications;
- Suggest alternative actions to secure benefits or appeal denials of benefits
- Explain legal action or other possible solutions
- Advocate on your behalf with other parties
- Refer you to an appropriate attorney when necessary
- Provide support and referrals on other matters including disability rights and the impact of earnings on financial eligibility for benefits;
- Discuss formal appeals related to denials of eligibility, termination of benefits or overpayment of public or private benefits.

Benefit Specialists can help you with a variety of programs and issues, including:

Insurance (Health, Long-Term Care) issues; Medical Assistance/Medicaid/BadgerCare+; Medicare; SeniorCare; Prescription drugs; FoodShare; Supplemental Security Income (SSI); Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI); Railroad Retirement Benefits; Housing and Utility Issues
