

Legal Aid Society of Door County

Visit Website

Legal Aid Society of Door County (LAS) is a volunteer organization that connects qualified applicants with volunteer attorneys who provide legal counseling, assistance and representation without charge. LAS does not provide legal services, nor does LAS employ attorneys to provide legal services to others. LAS may be able to help some applicants find a volunteer attorney.

How to Get Service

You can fill out an online application by pressing the "Apply Now" button below or going to the LAS website. You may also be able to apply in person at the LAS office on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:00 to 2:00. To confirm office hours please call (920) 743-3934.

LAS tries to locate volunteer attorneys to assist all eligible applicants. Sometimes it is not possible to connect an applicant with an available attorney; LAS maintains a waiting list for eligible clients in those circumstances. On occasion, LAS is unable to provide a volunteer attorney to eligible applicants because of the overwhelming need for legal services in our community.

Other Eligibility

LAS offers services based on residency in Door County. Eligibility is also based on the financial resources of the applicant and his or her household. Eligibility is based on the federal government's poverty level, which is adjusted annually. However, there are some exceptions – especially for people who are working and for domestic violence victims. Applicants will be asked about their household income and assets. All of the assets and income held by the applicant and members of his or her household are considered. Applicants who are denied service are provided with information about the LAS appeal process.
