

Ozaukee Family Law Assistance Center

Visit Website

The Family Law Assistance Center is available every Wednesday - 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to provide assistance for Family and Paternity cases. The attorneys at the Assistance Center cannot give legal advice. They are available to provide information and the following type of assistance:

- Information about the process, such as:
 - How to file a case or request a hearing
 - How to serve the other parties on the case
 - Courtroom procedures
- What type of information needs to be provided on the forms

Note: Forms and instructions will be provided free of charge at the Family Law Assistance Center, however there may still be filing fees or service fees to commence a court action.
